Eller Driven From the Box In Close Game at Flatbush

Victory for Robbie's Men Practically Clinches Pennant; Cadore Pitches Fine Ball, While Luque Does Well in Rescue Role; Griffith Stars at Bat

By R. J. Kelly

Uncle Robbie's Dodgers continued their mad rush toward the pennant by again defeating Pat Moran's champion Reds in the second game of the series at Ebbets Field yesterday afternoon by a score of 3 to 2. The victory practically clinched the championship for the Brooklynites, although it is still mathematically possible for either the Giants or the Reds to finish the season at the head of the pack.

The contest started as a pitching duel between Leon Cadore and Hod Eller, but the latter was forced to retire in the seventh when the home players came from behind and took the lead. Cadore pitched good ball throughout and limited his apponents to five well scattered hits. The Dodgers' twirler got himself in several tight holes, but he tightened up in the pinches and turned the visitors back.

The Reds' two runs came in the fifth inning as a result of an error, a base on balls, an infield hit and two infield outs. With the exception of Kilduff's error in the fifth, Cadore received perfect support from his mates and this helped him considerably on critical occasions. The contest started as a pitching duel

Eller Starts Well

Eller Starts Well

During the first six innings Eller allewed only four hits, but the Dodgers treated him rather harshly in the seventh and forced him to beat a hasty retreat. Senor Adolfo Luque took up the pitching burden and did not yield a safety for the remainder of the game, but the damage had already been done. Olson's double and singles by Wheat, Griffith and Myers sent the tieing and winning runs across before Luque could be rushed to the rescue.

The Dodgers wasted very little time in getting started and they got away to a one-run lead in the first inning. Olson, the first batter, reached first safely when Kopf made a wide throw to Daubert. Johnston was hit by a pitched ball and Griffith came through with a two-bagger to center which scored Olson. Johnston tried to reach third on the hit, but he was cut down by Roush's fine throw to Groh. Wheat lifted a fly to Duncan and Griffith was caught at third on Myers's grounder to Groh. aught at third on Myers's grounder

Neither team scored again until the fifth, when the Reds went into the lead by shoving two runs over. With none out Kilduif fumbled Duncan's grounder and the runner was safe. Kopf drew a base on balls and Neale beat out a neat bunt toward third, filling the bases.

Kilduff made a fine stop of Wingo's roller and nailed him at first, but Duncan scored on the play. Eller rolled a slow one toward the box and was thrown out at first, but Kopf completed the circuit. Rath then grounded to Kilduff for the third out. Dødgers Come With Rush

The Brooklynites came back with a sh in the seventh and added two more tallies, thereby clinching the game. Olson led off with a two-bagger to right and then took third on John-ston's sacrifice bunt to Eller. Griffith

THE Dodgers now have to win only six of their remaining ten games to clinch the pennant provided Cincinnati loses but one of its seventeen games. The Brooklyns would then finish the season with ninety-two games won and sixtytwo lost, for a percentage of .597. It would then also be impossible for the Glants to come out on top.

In the event that Brooklyn wins have to be from the Giants, as the Dodgers are scheduled to play five contests with the New Yorkers. The hest that the Giants could do then would be to win thirteen of their fourteen remaining games and this would give them a final standing of ninety-one won, sixty-three lost, percentage .591. The Reds will have to win all of their remaining games to finish with a percentage of .601. If they lose one game their percentage will be .595.

By losing to the White Sox yesterday the Yankees are now a full game behind the leaders and only two points ahead of the Chicago

Toney Victor Over Babe Adams Before Small- Five Leading Batters est Crowd of Season

The smallest crowd of the season the Polo Grounds saw the Giants pull out a victory over Pittsburgh in the tenth inning yesterday. The final score was 4 to 3. Meanwhile the Dodgers were tightening their grip on first place by again flattening the Reds, all of which allowed the New Yorkers to advance to second place while Pat Moran's crew dropped back to third.

Georgie Burns and "Pep" Young were the whole works for the winners. Between them they accounted for all four New York runs, while for Burns the game was a picnic. In five times up he hit safely on each occasion, getting a single, two doubles, a triple and a home run.

The Glants began swiftly and counted a run in the first inning. Burns cracked out a long drive to far right and made third standing up. Baneroft fanned, but Young lined to Southworth and Burns tallied. In the third Fred Toney drove one on high, the kind Ruth hits, but its height enabled Summa to get under it. Burns doubled and took third on Baneroft's single to Cutshaw, Young singled to left, scoring Burns and putting Baneroft on second, but Frisch and Kelly hit flies.

The Pirates came through in the fourth. Cutshaw singled and advanced on Southworth's sacrifice, and Cutshaw tallied on Whitted's out. In the sixth a home run by young Bipbee gave the visitors another run, and in the eighth the Pirate outfielder again tallied with the tying run. He opened the inning with a single past Kelly and scored on Summa's double.

Toney began the tenth with a single and made third with great effort on Burns's double to right. Bancroft was passed and then Young singled, sending home Spencer, who was running for Toney, with the winning run.

Risberg, the soulful Swede, ripped one through the infield to center and Jackson scored. Then Ray Schalk shot one at Aaron Ward, who let the pill slip between his brogans, and as it rolled merrily into left field Felsch and Risberg capered across the plate with a couple of runs.

Lewis started the ninth and last for the Yanks with a single to left. Ward bounded one over to Weaver and was thrown out. Hannah lifted a hit over John Shanoe Collins's head and Lewis

3. Losins pitcher—Thormablen. Empires—Hildebrand and Moriarity. Time—1:56.

Scored. Fewster went in to bat for Mays, and French, one of the new ivory crop, went in to run for Hannah. Fewster drew a base on balls.

Peck lashed a hit to center and French scored, but Fewster was caught trying to reach third. Pipp rapped one to Weaver, who threw him out at first and the timid rally ended, and so, it seemed to your correspondent, did the Yankee chances of world's series dough.
